THE WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON, D. C., JANUARY 1, 1900.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1865. It is a very important document, as it is the first official communication from the President to the Congress since the Reconstruction era. The letter discusses the state of the Union and the progress of Reconstruction.

[illegible]

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses, which appears to be a directory or a list of contacts. The names are written in a cursive script, and the addresses are listed below them. The list includes names such as "John A. Smith", "Mary E. Jones", and "Robert L. Brown".

IX. A LETTER addressed to the Right Hon. BRASS CROSBY, Esq;
Lord Mayor of the City of London,

Respecting the high Price of PROVISIONS.

In which the Causes of the same are shewn to have been little understood, and consequently the Remedies pointed out in a late Publication, are unequal and incompetent:

The true Causes are attempted to be ascertained, and the only probable Means of removing them are clearly set forth and recommended.
